

Department of Arts & Commerce

Academic Year 2023-24

Report of Expert Talk

On the topic “An educated investor is a protected investor”

Date: 13th October 2023

MIT Arts, Commerce & Science College, Alandi, Dept of Arts Commerce organized Expert Talk on the topic “An educated investor is a protected investor”, on 13th October 2023 under the valuable guidance of Principal, Dr. B. B. Waphare and Dr. Padmavati Undale - HOD of Arts & Commerce.

The expert talk on the topic "An Educated Investor is a Protected Investor" was organized to shed light on the crucial relationship between financial literacy and investment protection. The event aimed to educate participants about the significance of being well-informed before making investment decisions and how this knowledge can safeguard their financial interests.

Dr. Sarika R. Lohana – Senior Consultant, G Institutions and Consultancy, Mumbai , Certified Resource Person from SEBI, NISM, PFRDA and NCFE was the resource person for this program. She focused on the importance of financial literacy, risk assessment and management, diversification and portfolio allocation, avoiding investment scam and frauds, long term prospective and regulatory awareness.

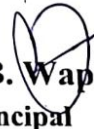

59 students attended this session and suggested that similar events be organized periodically to reinforce the importance of financial education and empower investors to navigate the complex world of finance with confidence. Overall, the expert talk on "An Educated Investor is a Protected Investor" provided invaluable insights into the pivotal role of financial literacy in safeguarding investment interests said by event coordinator Dr. Archana Aher while proposing Vote of thanks. Participants left the event equipped with practical knowledge and tools to make more informed and secure investment decisions.

Dr. Archana Aher
Event Coordinator

Dr. Padmavati Undale
HoD Arts & Commerce

Dr. B. B. Waphare
Principal

Expert Talk On the topic “An educated investor is a protected investor” Dated 13/10/2023

